As to Item 11, any government employees contacted by the Registrant were contacted solely to obtain information relating to areas of interest to the foreign principal.

With respect to paragraph 12, the Registrant had the following contacts with officials of the Executive and Legislative Branches:

Association Francaise des Banques

The Registrant contacted Fernand J. St. Germain, Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Financial Institutions, for the purpose of responding to questions asked by him.

The Embassy of the Government of Israel

The Registrant had meetings or telephone conversations with Robert Banque and Richard Goodman of the Treasury Department, Chester H. Gordon and Gary Butler of the Agriculture Department and one or two other staff members connected with the Agricultural Research Service whose names we do not know, and Peter Olson of the State Department and perhaps a representative of the Israeli Desk at the State Department whose name we do not know. The reason for these contacts was to negotiate an agreement on behalf of Israel concerning agricultural research and development.

The Swiss Embassy

The Registrant had contacts with the following representatives of the U.S. Patent Office: Michael K. Kirk, Claude Aoussat, S. Lefkowitz and P. Livingston. In addition, the Registrant had contact with L. Stuart Allan of the State Department. The reason for the contacts was to discuss the seriousness of the misuse of the word "Swiss" by U.S. companies and to explore possible solutions to the problem.
